

Pre-Deployment Checklists

Once your spouse has deployed, it's too late to get his or her signature on a will or have a power of attorney drawn up. Preparedness is the key to surviving a lengthy deployment. By planning ahead and anticipating all contingencies while the service member is away, assuming responsibility for the family safety, household finances, automobiles, banking and legal matters, medical, and housing issues will be much easier for the spouse or trusted family member. Below are some of the important steps to be taken and essential phone numbers and documents that must be acquired prior to the separation.

BANKING CHECKLIST

Consider having both the service member and the spouse listed on all joint banking accounts. Furthermore, if applicable, make sure your bank will accept a power of attorney. The spouse should have access to bank books and checkbooks, if agreed upon ahead of time.

In addition, to expedite the transfer of money, direct deposit can be established on appropriate checking accounts. Both the spouse and service member should have the following information available to them:

- Bank name: _____
- Telephone number for bank: _____
- Address/location: _____
- Checking account number: _____
- Savings account number: _____
- PIN numbers for each account: _____
- Safe deposit box location and key: _____

Many banking-related institutions, such as USAA, Navy Federal Credit Union, Pentagon Federal Credit Union, and Wells Fargo now offer worldwide online access. In addition, financial institutions are increasingly offering online bill payment services. If you have Internet access, this is an excellent way to stay on top of bills and payments from anywhere in the world.

FAMILY MEMBER CHECKLIST

- Prepare personal financial and business files for important documents.
- Each family member should have a valid ID card before the separation occurs.
- Keep an account of when the ID cards will need to be updated if renewal takes place while the service member is deployed.
- The service member needs to fill out and sign a DD Form 1172 form. This is an application for the DoD Common Access Card — DEERS enrollment. This can be obtained at the unit personnel office. DEERS can also be reached at (800) 538-9552.
- Verify DEERS enrollment for all family members.
- Update immunizations for family members.

MEDICAL CHECKLIST

- The spouse and/or caretaker needs to know the name and number of the children's physician, dentist/orthodontist and eye care professional.
- All immunizations should be up to date.
- Spouse or caretaker should have access to all medical, dental and vision records.

AUTOMOTIVE CHECKLIST

If you are assuming the responsibility of keeping the car(s) tuned up and running, the following information is essential when going to the mechanic.

- Mileage at last tune up: _____
- Mileage at next scheduled tune up: _____
- Name/number and location of mechanic:

- What type of gasoline should the car be filled with?

- What grade of oil does the car require? _____
- When does the oil need replacing? _____
- When will the chassis U-joints and steering linkage need lubing? _____
- What kind of battery should be purchased and which post polarity (positive right or left)? _____
- Will the tires need rotating. If so, when? _____
- Will the tires need replacing during the deployment? If so, when and what size and type should be purchased?

- What other maintenance should be performed during the deployment? What is the schedule for those maintenance tasks? _____
- Where is the spare set of keys kept? _____

HOUSING CHECKLIST

Each family member should know the location of the:

- Electrical box
- Water and gas control valves
- Name and phone number for the plumber, housing office, and/or electrician
- First-aid kit (medical kit, enough water and non-perishable food for a week for each family member, flashlights with spare batteries, radio with spare batteries, extra blankets and clothing for each family member)
- Fire extinguisher(s)

In addition, the spouse or caretaker should have a spare set of keys for the home and automobile(s). All smoke detectors should be operable. Replace any used batteries.
